

VISITING OTHER u3as

We have reciprocal arrangements with some of the nearby u3as which allow our members to attend the groups of other u3as without having to pay membership to each u3a. Likewise they can visit us.

This is subject to availability within the group being visited. Home members will always have priority over visitors.

The arrangements vary across the u3as, so please read the information about each u3a.

BURTON u3a

Ashby u3a members can attend any number of groups with the proviso that the member contacts the group leader before attending and pays any group fee due for that attendance.

A list of Burton's groups and how to contact them is available on their website

WHITWICK & DISTRICT u3a

Ashby u3a members can attend any Whitwick group that Ashby does not currently run, on payment of any group fee for their attendance.

A list of Whitwick's Groups and contact details can be found here:

MELBOURNE u3a

Ashby u3a members can join up to 3 groups on payment of any group attendance fee. In addition Melbourne ask that their Chair be contacted as well as the group leader before a member turns up at a group as the Chair wants to ensure that the committee knows what is happening.

A list of Melbourne's Groups and contact details can be found here:

BURTON, WHITWICK and MELBOURNE members visiting ASHBY u3a

Members from each of the listed u3as are welcome to visit Ashby u3a under the same arrangements as we can visit them.

Contact details of Ashby Group Leaders are available here:

Other u3as

If you wish to visit any other u3a you will be subject to their rules, fees or charges which may vary. You will most likely have to pay a membership fee. Contact the u3a before visiting to see whether they have a place available.

If you do join another u3a, as well as Ashby, you should only have to pay the Third Age Trust Fee (i.e. the money which goes to Headquarters) once. So on production of your Ashby membership card you should be exempt from that part of their membership fee.

Likewise any existing member of another u3a joining Ashby u3a would be exempt from the TAT Fee (currently £3.50) portion of our membership fee.
